FIREMEN'S BY-LAWS WERE AMENDED
New Relief Association Held an Important Meeting.
NOW WAITING FOR THE CHARTER

All the Necessary Preliminary Steps Were Concluded Last Evening. Benefits Fixed at $2 Per Day for Not Over 26 Consecutive Weeks or $100 in Case of Death—Membership to Be Fixed by Assessment of $10 Per Company.

The last step but one necessary to properly secure possession of this city's share of the state fund for firemen's relief was taken last night at a meeting of the Firemen's Relief Association of Scranton. The meeting was held in the common council chamber in that city hall and was attended by nearly all the two delegates from each of the sixteen companies in the city.

It required three hours of steady work to amend and adopt finally the constitution and by-laws reported by the by-laws committee. The work was facilitated by the use of numerous copies of "Tuesday's Tribune" containing the incorporation proposed and which had been distributed among those present. It only remains now to secure a charter, application for which was signed last night.

The important changes made in the by-laws were, in substance, as follows:

Stated meetings shall be held in the fourth Wednesday evening of every month.

The annual elections will be held in December.

The secretary shall receive $50 annually, his salary being regulated by the association instead of its directors.

The association, instead of its directors, shall designate the use of all moneys accruing to the association.

Instead of a per capita tax of $1 per member of each city company per annum, the membership shall be provided by an annual dues of $1 per company, all active members of such companies in good standing to be eligible to the benefits.

AMOUNT OF BENEFITS.

The benefits to be $2 per week for not more than twenty-six consecutive weeks or $100 in case of death.

In case of injury or sickness the applicant's company officers shall be notified within forty-eight hours and they shall notify the chief of the fire department forthwith. The board of directors shall investigate all cases and engage if necessary one of the six association examining physicians to assist them.

The following six physicians were selected for examiners: First district, Dr. J. J. Sullivan; Second district, Dr. B. G. Redloe; Third district, Dr. W. E. Phillips; Fourth district, Dr. Albert Kolb; Fifth district, Dr. Walker; Sixth district, Dr. A. H. Bernstein. City Solicitor M. A. McGinley was named as the association's attorney. Cushing's rules were agreed upon for the parliamentary government of meetings.

Six hundred copies of the amended constitution and by-laws were ordered printed for distribution among the companies. The secretary and treasurer were directed to purchase the books and other supplies necessary to their respective offices.

MATTER OF DUES.

An adjournment was made to the first Wednesday in April. The secretary was directed to meanwhile notify the companies that their dues should be paid on or before that date when it is expected, the charter will have been granted.

The matter of obtaining the money said to be due from the disbanded Firemen's union was, on motion, postponed indefinitely.

REPAIRS WILL BEGIN.
Not of Sufficient Extent to Satisfy the Board of Trade.

Street Commissioner Dunning will at once proceed to repair Lackawanna and Washington avenues. The work will be comparatively insignificant and will only afford temporary and incomplete relief as the department has but $1,500 left for the purpose in the 1897 appropriation.

Mr. Dunning's purpose was not suggested by the recent action of the board of trade. At daylight Monday morning work was started at the department's asphalt mixing plant but the operations had to be deferred on account of rain. In making the repairs all the holes will not be filled nor will asphalt be wholly used.

Certain spots where the surface has been entirely worn away and the concrete left in good condition will be filled with asphalt. If it concrete has been disintegrated the use of asphalt would be of no use. In such cases concrete will be used. It will be poured and rolled even with the surface and will at least serve the purpose of filling.

Since the asphalt repair agitation assumed such a pronounced form, city officials and others have been notified of many accidents to vehicles, horses and bicyclists. At the time of the mishaps it probably never occurred to the persons affected that they had redress. The present stir and publicity, however, tend to make legal action against the city quite probable in the future.

FUNERAL OF MRS. M. J. WALSH.
Requiem Mass Celebrated in St. Thomas Church, Archdiocese.

The remains of the late Mrs. M. J. Walsh of Von Storch avenue, were taken to Archdiocese yesterday morning for interment, as it was in that town the best years of her life were spent. From the station the body was conveyed to the residence of her sister, Mrs. Mary Cooligan, on North River street, and the casket was opened and hundreds of the deceased's friends viewed the remains.

At 10 o'clock a high mass of requiem was sung in St. Thomas church, by Rev. P. J. McHale, who at the close of mass preached the funeral sermon. After the sermon the remains were interred in the Archdiocese Catholic cemetery. The pall bearers were: Ex-Sher-

SMASHED A WINDOW.
Lewis Thomas Threw a Bottle of Whiskey Through It.

Lewis Thomas, of Peckville, was taken to the county jail last evening in default of $500 bail for raising a disturbance at the Harrison house, Thomas, with several companions, became engaged in an altercation and the former, incensed by some unkind remarks relative to his good standing in the community, took a bottle half filled with whiskey from his pocket and hurled it through a large plate glass window in the hotel.

At a hearing before Squire Arnold, Thomas was committed. He was brought down at a late hour last evening on a Peckville car by Deputy Constable Walker, assisted by Roy Craig.

TRIED TO DRAW A GUN.
Man Who Is Supposed to Be a Crook Arrested Last Night.

After he had showed himself ready to use his revolver, a man thought to be a high-grade crook was bagged by the police last night and locked in the central police station. The cause for the arrest is revealed in the following:

Bradock, Pa., March 23.

Chief of Police, Scranton, Pa.: Arrest Charles Burlington, larceny, 25 years, smooth face, heavy set, dark clothing, plunk and white shirt, black gun. Will arrive at 8 1/2 a. m. on D. L. & W. train. Has trunk; hold.

Wm. Bennett, Chief of Police.

The telegram arrived too late to meet the train, but a watch on the trunk was arranged. Special Officer Philip Goerlitz was assigned that duty.

The man answering the foregoing description presented a check for the trunk at 9 o'clock, but broke away from Goerlitz and ran up the platform when the latter attempted to make the arrest. Patrolman John Haggerty was at the end of the platform and made Burlington a prisoner.

Enroute to the central police station Haggerty had hold of Burlington's right arm. Burlington made several suspicious moves with the engaged arm which were finally construed by the patrolman to mean the presence of a concealed weapon. He grasped Burlington more firmly and cautioned him under penalty of clubbing to go along quietly, the patrolman not caring to risk searching the man in the crowded streets.

At the station house Burlington whirled quickly about as soon as he entered the door and made a motion toward his hip pocket. Haggerty was too quick for him and succeeded in extracting from the pocket a .38-caliber five-shot revolver.

The prisoner was double-locked in a cell in the woman's ward pending the arrival here of an officer from Bradock. A technical charge of carrying concealed weapons was entered on the police docket.

Burlington was fashionably dressed and acted in every particular the crook of high degree. His readiness to make use of his gun bore out this suspicion. When searched he was found to be well supplied with money.

NOON-DAY SERVICE.
It Was Addressed by Rev. Father Huntington.

Rev. Father Huntington briefly addressed the large congregation at the noon service at St. Luke's church yesterday. He began by saying that religion's ideas differ widely as regards people and every day affairs. They want precision in science, exactness in philosophy, attention to the minutest details in law and in the ordinary affairs of life, but they want a theology of vagueness and a religion of platitudes. When we deal with the Almighty and our souls we need not mysteries but realities. We know that many are not in right relations with God; we know many characters and delightful characters who give scanty recognition to religion, while others are in a state of antagonism against the things of God.

There are two kinds of sin, venial and mortal. A venial sin, while an offense, and therefore a sin against God, is an unintentional offense. A mortal sin is one that would cast us off from God, would separate us forever.

Today Father Huntington will more clearly define mortal sin in his noon-day talk. Last evening he spoke at St. Mark's of "Love the Gift of God."

COMBINATION OF OFFENSES.
Causes Alderman Kelly to Commit Joseph Smith.

Joseph Smith was committed to the county jail yesterday morning in default of bail to answer a series of charges comprising aggravated assault and battery, larceny, and threats. Lawrence Denia, of Capouse avenue, is the prosecutor.

This trouble grew out of other trouble which arose between Smith and a boarder of Denia's. Not long ago Smith went to Denia's boarding house and seeking a quarrel with the said boarder, was soundly thrashed. The boarder disappeared and Smith had Denia, the boarding boss, arrested. Denia was committed and after several days' incarceration secured bail. Of course, Denia sought redress and had Smith arrested on the above charges.

His feeling against Smith was increased by the fact that during his enforced stay at the county jail, of (Denia's) household goods were levied upon and sold for rent due.

REFORMER MALONEY WAS SENT TO JAIL
Appeared before the Grand Jury in an Intoxicated Condition.

WAS ABUSIVE AND DISRESPECTFUL

The Jurors Had Him Taken Before Judge Gunster, Who Committed Him to the County Jail, Where He Spent the Night—Grand Jury Will Make Its Return to Court Today. Bill Will Be Reported in the Official Stabbing Case.

Reformer T. H. C. Maloney came to brief yesterday and spent the night in the county jail. Maloney is the man who for six weeks past has been relentlessly pursuing the proprietors of "speakeasies" of the First, Second, Third, Seventh and Tenth wards of this city, Dickson City and Piceburg. He had nearly fifty of these alleged violators held in jail for their appearance at court and Tuesday afternoon and yesterday the cases came before the grand jury for consideration.

Yesterday morning when Maloney appeared before the jury he gave evidence of having absorbed a little too much of the tangible evidence he had in his possession for use against the persons he was prosecuting. After the noon recess his condition was many degrees worse than it was in the morning and when he was called before the jury his condition disgusted the jurors. After giving his testimony in that particular case he went out into the corridor where he talked excessively in a loud tone of voice and when remonstrated with by Tipstaff Ritter, the guardian of the grand jury, he became very offensive.

SMOKE PROTECTOR TEST.
Will Be Attended in Wilkes-Barre Today by Chief Hickey.

Chief Hickey, of the fire department, will today attend an exhaustive test of smoke protectors by the Wilkes-Barre fire department. Chief Hickey's invitation to be present was received yesterday from Chief George A. St. John, of Wilkes-Barre.

The test will begin at 2 o'clock. The Bader, Lach, Miller, Midget and other protectors will be tried.

THE ORGILL CASE.
The case of Constable John Orgill, of North Scranton, who stabbed Robert Elliot in a North Scranton saloon several months ago, was heard by the jury Monday and will be reported today. The charges are felonious wounding with intent to kill and the bill will be a true one. Elliot has not yet recovered from the effects of his wound and it is doubtful if he ever will fully recover.

MAYNARD EQUITY CASE.
It Was Heard Before Judge F. W. Gunster Yesterday.

Before Judge F. W. Gunster yesterday afternoon there was a hearing in the equity case of Mrs. Elizabeth Maynard, of West Scranton, against Mrs. Catherine Staples, of North Scranton. The parties to the suit are sisters and the proceeds of the sale of a lot near the square on North Main avenue is the matter in dispute. The property was sold May 21, 1897. The plaintiff was represented by Attorneys Vosburg & Dawson and the defendant by Attorneys Hulstader and Alworth.

It is contended by the plaintiff that the lot referred to was owned jointly by herself and sister, although the title was in Mrs. Staples' name. There was a parole agreement and an understanding between them to the effect that each had a half interest in the lot. When Mrs. Staples sold the property last May she did not give any of the
